

A Person Like You

By

Even though I have a disability
I'm a person like you
The only difference is
I can't do all the things you do

When I want to speak to you
I know sometimes it may
Take a little longer
But I have good things to say

I know most things you know
And I feel the way you feel
I love and laugh and dream and cry
My heart is just as real

So if you get to know me
And if you really care
You'll find though I have a disability
I have a lot to share.
