Shabbat Service

Join Har HaShem for a No Shushing Shabbat Service

Attending Shabbat services can be a challenge for some people and families. Maybe you or a family member needs to move around a bit or make a little noise. Or maybe someone in your family has a special need or a disability.

Join us at the No Shushing service so you and your loved ones can enjoy services together in a meaningful way. We'll also have a sign language interpreter.

This community-wide service is for all ages – everyone is welcome.

After the service, please join us for an oneg Shabbat for some dessert, including gluten-free options, and a chance to connect with others.

Har Hashem is an inclusive community. Please contact Rabbi Glickman at m.glickman@harhashem.org or the organizer of the Har HaShem Inclusion Committee, Susan Glairon, at sglairon@comcast.net if you have special needs or need more information.
