

At Mount Zion Congregation We Care About Accessibility and Inclusion

We Offer:

- K.U.L.A.M. Special needs inclusion program for youth and teens
- Accommodations for B'nei Mitzvot
- Looped hearing system that works with hearing aids, amplifiers, headsets
- ASL interpreters upon request
- Accessible bathroom near kitchen
- Accessible entrances at front and alley doors
- Disability parking on Summit and in kitchen parking lot
- Flexible seating in sanctuary
- Elevator to bimah and ark
- Low scent flowers
- Reading glasses
- Braille signage on doors
- Adjustable print sizes on website
- Increased sized print on mobile devices
- Books for children during services
- Participation in Jewish Disability Awareness Month
- Books for adults and children on disability in Mount Zion library
- Closed circuit television in small sanctuary for optional quieter space

Soon to come:

- Hand held magnifiers
- Increased gluten, dairy and nut free options at events
- Fidgets to focus during services
- Live streaming of services

Have a need? Please ask!

Accessibility and Inclusion Working Group: Allyson Perling, (Education, Oversight), Cantor Spilker (Clergy Liaison, Outreach), Anne Starr (Physical), Sheri Frisque (Vision), Joan Ostrove (Deaf and Hard of Hearing), Mavis Goldstein (Food Sensitivities), Sue Lund (Jewish Disability Awareness Month), Paula Roston (K.U.L.A.M.), Liza Henry (Youth Engagement Associate, Mental Health), Susan Summit (Education Director)